Department of Biology
Wake Forest University

Research Equivalency Approval Form

This student has satisfied the BS requirement - Bio 500E - which will go on their audit as meeting the Bio Research Requirement for a BS in Biology.

Student’s Name: ______________________________________________________

Student’s ID Number: ________________________________________________

Project: ____________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________________

Where completed: ____________________________________________________

Research advisor: ____________________________________________________

Before you can obtain approval for research equivalency, please attach to this form a written description of your research project which clearly states your role in the research project.

WFU Major Advisor’s signature: _________________________________

Print signature: _____________________________________________________

Date: _____________________________

Once this form has been signed by your advisor, please give it to Cindy Davis or Nancy Fauser in the Biology Office, Winston Room 226A.