The minor in Schools, Education, and Society (SES) is intended for students who have an interest in education but who are not pursuing a teaching license. Students are required to complete 17 hours.

The following four courses are required for the SES minor.

- Field Lab I
  This course focuses on school and society through practical experiences in public schools and a weekly seminar (2h).

- Professional Experiences in Education
  This course offers students a placement in an educational setting under the supervision of a professional mentor (3h).

- Field Lab I
  This course focuses on school and society through practical experiences in public schools and a weekly seminar (2h).

- Professional Experiences in Education
  This course offers students a placement in an educational setting under the supervision of a professional mentor (3h).

Students are required to complete at least two of the following courses.

- Adolescent Literature
  This course focuses on the reading and interpretation of classic and contemporary young adult literature across genres (3h).

- Social Justice Issues in Education
  This course facilitates exploration of issues of social justice and schooling from both theoretical and practical perspectives (3h). Prerequisite, EDU 201

- Design, Assessment, and Technology
  This course introduces contemporary technologies for supporting instruction, assessment, and professional practice (3h). Prerequisite, EDU 311

- Content Pedagogy
  This course explores teaching methods used in secondary content areas (English, mathematics, science, second languages, social studies) (3h).

- Comparative & International Education
  This course examines historical, political, economic, cultural, and social issues shaping education in selected countries throughout the world (3h).

- Literacy in the 21st Century
  This course examines the impact of emerging literacy trends on 21st century students in a digital, global world (3h).

- Writing Pedagogy
  This course provides students with a foundational understanding of writing pedagogy methods and approaches (3h).

- Teaching Diverse Learners
  This course addresses diversity in the classroom and examines differentiated instruction to meet the needs of all students (3h).

For information about the SES minor, please see Ms. Robin Hawkins (hawkinrh@wfu.edu) in the Department of Education, Tribble B201.