TENURE TRACK ASSISTANT PROFESSOR POSITION

WAKE FOREST UNIVERSITY’S Department of Sociology invites applications for a tenure-track assistant professor position to begin fall 2013. We seek scholars with a commitment to outstanding teaching and an active research program with interests specifically in medical sociology, health or environmental sociology but who are also able to contribute to our core curriculum including introductory courses, social theory, social statistics, or social research methods. Applicants must have a Ph.D. in sociology in hand by August 2013.

To apply, please submit a cover letter, a curriculum vitae, evidence of excellence in teaching, and a sample of recent published work as e-mail attachments in Adobe PDF format to (socrecr@wfu.edu) with the applicant’s name as the subject heading. Please also direct three letters of reference and any questions to Chair, Recruitment Committee, Department of Sociology, 1834 Wake Forest Road, Wake Forest University, Winston-Salem, NC 27109 (phone: 336-758-5495). Review of applications will begin September 17, 2012. Applicants are strongly encouraged to submit materials prior to that date; however, applications will continue to be accepted until the position is filled.

Wake Forest University welcomes and encourages diversity and seeks applications from women and minorities. It seeks to recruit and retain a diverse workforce to maintain the excellence of the University, and to offer students richly varied disciplines, perspectives and ways of knowing and learning.

Located in Winston-Salem, North Carolina, Wake Forest University is a private, coeducational institution with a student-faculty ratio of 10:1. Ranking among the top thirty national universities, it offers a vibrant intellectual community with a rich cultural life, and impressive array of facilities and an active athletics community. For facts about the University go to http://www.wfu.edu/visitors/quickfacts.html. For information about the Sociology Department go to http://www.wfu.edu/sociology/. For facts about Winston Salem go to http://www.cityofws.org/home/discoverwinston-salem/articles/cityinformation.